Yolanda Seach

From Realism to Abstract

Saturday 19 September, 2020 - 1.30pm - 3.30pm
$10 incl. light refreshments

City Parramatta Art Society invites you to enjoy an afternoon with Yolanda Seach.

The purpose of the demonstration will show fellow artists how to create an abstract image from a traditional, realist subject.

Abstraction indicates a departure from reality in depiction of imagery in art.

Yolanda will show you the steps she takes, through a series of sketches to the final image, which will be painted on a canvas in acrylic.

Once you master the technique, the abstract painting can be done canvas or paper in your choice of colours and medium and have fun doing it.

An insight into our Demo Artist: Yolanda was born in Germany, but she and her parents came to Australia as "Displaced Persons" when she was two. Even as a small child she loved drawing and later took up painting.

Yolanda is a self-taught artist and has experimented with a wide range of different subjects, techniques and mediums. She enjoys interspersing traditional subjects with fun abstracts.

IMPORTANT: Due to social distancing regulations, limited spaces available.
