PRESIDENT'S REPORT - Geoff Sellman CPAS President

Hello everyone and welcome to our Newsletter and a special welcome to our newest members.

Please don't be shy, this is your Gallery too so please feel free to drop in anytime, even for just a coffee and chat.

With our AGM over for another year, we are still on the hunt for a new Treasurer. If you know of someone willing to fill this position, please let Dianna know.

We are still looking for another external venue to exhibit our member's paintings, thank you to Carmel Mackie for all the ground work you've been doing regarding this subject.

This is the last month of Winter, Spring is almost upon us brightening up our adventures with loads of colour on the palette! Congratulations to those members who have achieved success at the many Art Shows that are around.

Our annual Foundation Week Awards is quickly approaching. We are again unable to have Parramatta Town Hall for this event for a year or two, so we shall be having this at our Hunter Street Gallery of Fine Arts.

Well that's all for now & Happy Painting

Geoff Sellman

President CPAS

GALLERY REPORT – Angus Lockhart Exhibition Manager

The July show was of unframed larger canvases with D hooks which made the hanging so much easier, the fact there were no competing frames to contend with gave a much better overall feeling to the show.

I think no frames and thick canvases is a good way to go, it saves the artist money and it allowed the purchaser freedom of choice, this of course cannot be applied to pastels. We sold 3 large paintings, this exhibition, through the modernity and bright colours really did increase the number of visitors to the gallery.

The current show is a return to a bit of everything, harder to hang, but we have been able to achieve a degree of harmony through the hanging of complimentary colourings.

The Feature Artist has produced a superb set of landscapes featuring European and Australian street scenes, pay attention to the subtle light colourings between the hemispheres, not forgetting the feature portrait of the Tea Drinker, brilliant. Well done Ruhullah Naqshbandi.

For September we are featuring, Hunter Street in Bloom!! I expect lots of flower paintings, or whatever says Spring to you as an artist. A gallery full of Flowers's would be "Blooming" marvellous.

Our feature artist Carmel Mackie, is sure to delight us.

Angus.

POSITION VACANCY - TREASURER

We are still looking for a new Treasurer, Barry our present treasurer has resigned at our AGM 2018. Barry is filling in until we can find someone wants to join our team.

Barry has established a workable accounting system and will give training to whoever replaces him.

If you have time on your hands, with some account experience, please send us your resume or call to set up a meeting. You do not necessarily need to be a member but some long term association with CPAS would be an advantage. Experience with MYOB or other accounting package would be helpful but not essential.

We need someone who is community minded to join our group.

Contact Dianna to arrange an interview
