Victoria Kitanov

The Art of Visual Storytelling

Saturday 21 November, 2020 1.30pm - 3.30pm

$10 incl. light refreshments

City Parramatta Art Society Inc. invites you to enjoy an afternoon in conversation with Marine Artist & Visual Storyteller Victoria Kitanov.

According to the Tate Gallery, the term genre painting refers to paintings that depict scenes of everyday life. A related term is narrative art which is art that tells a story. It largely fell out of vogue in the art world in the late 19th-early 20th century in favour of formalism, where form was favoured over subject, and was quickly followed by abstract art.

Bio: Former commercial artist, children's book illustrator, amateur historian, library & information professional, tour guide, public servant, archivist and narrative artist, Victoria will discuss the fascinating world of maritime art and visual storytelling.

Time permitting, Victoria will demonstrate her other love – pets & maritime mascots.
